DONALD C. WINTER, Secretary of the Navy,)	ORDER to SHOW CAUSE

This matter is before the court sua sponte. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) establishes the following time limit for service of process on the defendants in a civil case:

(m) Time Limit for Service. If service of the summons and complaint is not made upon a defendant within 120 days after the filing of the complaint, the court, upon motion or on its own initiative after notice to the plaintiff, shall dismiss the action without prejudice as to that defendant or direct that service be effected within a specified time; provided that if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court shall extend the time for service for an appropriate period. This subdivision does not apply to service in a foreign country pursuant to subdivision (f) or (j)(1).

The deadline for service of process has expired and the court's records show that the plaintiff did not return the summons forms to the court allowing timely service of process by the U.S. Marshal on the plaintiff's behalf. The plaintiff was warned that failure to obtain timely service on the defendants could result in dismissal of this matter, without prejudice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That by, July 23, 2007, the plaintiff shall file a written pleading entitled Response to Order to Show Cause explaining any reason the plaintiff may have why the above-entitled case should not be dismissed without prejudice for failure to obtain timely service of process on any defendant; and

2. That in the absence of a timely and sufficient Response to Order to Show Cause, this case may be subject, without further notice, to dismissal without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) by District Judge Joseph F. Bataillon.

DATED this 22nd day of June, 2007.

BY THE COURT:

s/ F. A. Gossett
United States Magistrate Judge
